BROTHERS VISIT.
Mad Not Seen Each Other in Forty Years.

Giles Latham, who has been in indifferent health at his home in Noank for a number of years, recently received a call from his cousin, Henry Latham, of Norwich, whom he had not seen in forty years. Mr. Latham, who is 71, has spent most of his life in the town of Ledyard, where he owned a large farm which, owing to ill health, he sold about two years ago, and with Mrs. Latham moved to a smaller farm near North, where he has since resided. The visit was a pleasure for both and was keenly enjoyed by them, while talking over their younger days and the many changes that have taken place since.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
Good Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.
Well selected vaudeville attractions and motion pictures of unusual excellence make up an exceptionally strong bill at the Auditorium for the last half of the week.

The tolling on the vaudeville programme is a unique trampoline bar exhibition by the Loretta Twins & Co., a trio of the foremost light gymnasts of Europe, who have been giving work meets with the evident approval of the audience. Elliott and West, singing and dancing clowns, present an act that is novel and entertaining, being especially funny in their scropious costumes. When it comes to comedy juggling, Hall in his act of his own, his windup act being an exhibition of juggling while standing on a glass vase on the top of a table.

The chief attraction of the motion picture programme is a two-reel production in natural colors of the Mar-garita's Daughter. This is one of the finest films ever shown here. The usual animated weekly film attracts much favorable comment.

CONNECTICUT. A. R. YEAR'S WORK

President Taft Praised the Good Done by the Guide— $15,598.31 Spent in Different Lines of State Work— What Vicinity Chapters Did.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, April 18.—Mrs. John Laidlaw Bush, state regent of the Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution, presented her report for the year last night to the Connecticut congress of that organization.
In submitting her report, Mrs. Bush said: "During the past year the energies of our chapters have been concentrated on the development of the work for the future publication, translation and extension of our new famous Guide, or Guide for Immigrants, as it is called in our last report. It was necessary to raise $5,000 within the year, in order to carry on the propaganda with efficiency and force, as outlined in that report. That fund of $5,000 was raised within a year and seventeen days from December 2, 1911, to the present time. An appeal for funds went out to the 4,500 Connecticut D. A. R. and at the time of this writing a surplus of $210 is in the bank to the credit of the Guide fund. In addition to this, over $150 was raised to cover the cost of these circulars, and the proceeds from sales amounting to several hundred dollars, have, according to the agreement with Mr.
Carr, been sent back into the fund.
"Every chapter in the state, with outside exceptions, contributed to the fund. Susan Carrington Clarke chapter, with donations amounting in all to $150.

In January the final payment of this fund of $5,000 was made to John Foster Carr, author of the Guide and our sole business representative, and he in turn has been so faithful and loyal in his work, not only in calling for money for the future conduct of the business, but in the management of the old schoolhouse where Nathan Hale taught when in New London and during summer months has been spending his time in educating a week with a curator in attendance. The "Antislavery Bazaar 'round" has also had its devoted care, and has spent in repairing wall paper and a gardener for care of shrubs and trees planted in previous years by the chapter, mowing grass and keeping shrubs and garden in shape, the sum of $242.24. Two scholarships have been sent to Maryville college, the sum of $100 each, and the sum of $100 has been sent to the same college for the year. To the Guide fund $87; to the salary of the state secretary $150; towards the salary of the state secretary $150; towards the salary of the state secretary $150.

Will Conclude Duties at the Art School at Close of Spring Term.

At the end of the spring term at the Norwich Free Academy, Director G. A. Thompson will sever his connection with the art school. The announcement comes as a surprise to his many friends. Mr. Thompson has been director of the art school about two years, coming here a year ago last October. Before coming to Norwich, he was principal of the New Haven New Haven art school. He succeeded Miss Dodge, who was director of the art school, and was a member of great ability. His paintings, exhibited in town and in other cities have pleased many art lovers. He has been determined to complete his art education and to devote his time to the study of art, but on July 1 he will vacate his residence on One-o'-clock street.
His many friends of the city, Mr. Thompson will leave the city on his way to

WORTH MORE THAN MONEY.

Here is an instance where a few words of advice by a friend helped more than a gift of $100 would.

Mrs. H. Hartmann, who lives in Albany, N. Y., who was in bad health for years and is now strong and vigorous says in a letter:

"I was in a run-down condition for over five years until this spring, when I learned what a good tonic and strengthening Vinol is. It is certainly the best tonic I have ever used and it has done wonders for me."

It is very important for all who are not feeling just right, to build up their strength this spring by taking our delicious cod liver and iron remedy without oil, Vinol.

There is no better time than right now, for Vinol both enriches and purifies the blood and creates new strength. People who have troublesome coughs, no appetite, can't sleep, find Vinol exactly what they need to build them up. We guarantee Vinol to satisfy you and will pay back your money if it does not. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Engler, Norwich, Conn.

Vermonter, all were invited to the dining room, where a birthday supper was served from a prettily arranged table. The place cards were tiny cards in envelopes, found to contain original toasts. Reading these toasts, the guests made a merry good time. Each guest received a pretty souvenir of the evening.

Miss Geraldine, who made a delicious dinner, received many gifts and heartiest wishes for many more birthdays. Mrs. Oat was assisted by Miss Mary Dolbear.

Those present were the Misses Margaret Starnum, Allison Chaffey, Lucille Howard, Gladys Meier, Alice Coleman, Susan Evans, Dorothy Rawson, Marjory Phillips, Grace Mitchell, Elwyn MacMillan, John Deane, and Miss Oat, Ella Rowe, Geraldine Oat and Master Clifford Oat.

NORWICH TOWN
Sewing Meet Followed by Welsh Ran-sit Supper—Local Guests at Mansfield Golden Wedding.

The Thursday Afternoon Sewing club met with Mr. L. S. Ingalls at her home on Vergason avenue. The rainy afternoon was a contrast to the cheerful social hour spent at the close of which a Welsh rabbit supper, with sandwiches, jelly and coffee, was served by the hostess.

Overbird Ahead of Schedule.
The overbird, with its song of "Teacher! Teacher!" has been heard for two or three days on Huntington lane. This bird, which is not due until May, got its name from the peculiar construction of its arched nest, resembling an overbird. The song of the wood thrush has been noted on Washington street. The phone bird has been heard and some of its note resembles the spring note of the chickadee, but the accent is more on the second syllable. The purple grackle's squeaky ring sing with that of the chickadee, meadow larks and bluebirds in the early morning.
